MARRAKECH SIGSEEING

With an old and rich history, and many empires and monarchies come and go, Marrakech is left with a multitude of monumental places, standing as a witness of a golden age lived by the city,

FROM
40€<sub>p.p</sub>
Half Day
Tour Guide

A Certified guide will accompany you throughout the city, exploring the old Medina and its hidden gems, the palaces, the souks, the main square, the tombs, and more

Museum of Marrakech

Palais Badia

An immense palace in ruins with massive garden area and prison cells. The site mimics Alhambra in Granada, built by Sultan Ahmed el-Mansour, and ornamented by gold and precious rocks, before its demolition 75 years later

Built in 1900, this place has been a residence for many powerful men, before turning it into a museum by the great collector Omar Benjelloun

Saadian Tombs

Finding the entrance of the tombs is a challenge which explains why they were only re-discovered in 1917 by French archaeologists. Story says that Sultan Moulay Ismail built blocking walls to imprison the souls of his predecessors.

MARRAKECH GARDENS

Most people associate Marrakech with night life and festive activities, they are not wrong, but the city also offers some wonderful gardens where you can admire the mesmerizing nature, the vibrant colors of vegetation, and reconnect with mother earth

Each of these gardens was first made/built/created for a purpose by their creators, however, they have something in common, they were all created with so much love and passion, and once you visit them, you can definitely tell

Paradis du Safran

Marjorelle

The two and half acre botanical garden was created by the French Orientalist artist Jacques Majorelle starting in 1923, and features a Cubist villa in special shade of bold cobalt blue, inspired by the coloured tiles seen across the country

Christine Ferrari, a lovely Swiss lady, runs an organic saffron plantation that is definitely true to its name. The property includes a large garden with herbs and medicinal plants, citrus fruits...

Anima garden

Universal artist André Heller's opulent, two-hectare botanical staging is a magical place of sensuality, of wonder, of contemplation, of joy, of healing, and of inspiration. For people of all ages who want to experience the unforgettable.

DAY IN ESSAOUIRA MOGADOR

FROM

85€ pp
PER PERSON

WINDY COASTAL CHARM

Essaouira is the closest coastal city to Marrakech, with the Atlantic ocean breathing its kind breeze on this beautiful town that was always a shelter for ocean navigators and traders, Essaouira was occupied by the Portuguese and called Castelo Real de Mogador during the 14th century. During the 16th century, powers including Spain, England, the Netherlands and France tried in vain to conquer the locality. Essaouira remained a haven for the export of sugar and molasses and as an anchorage for pirates ( not anymore thankfully),

— what's included —

- ✓ Comfortable transportation
- ✓ English speaking driver
- ✓ Sight of climbing tree goats
- ✓ Flexible stops and timing

EXTRA ACTIVITIES YOU CAN DO

- The beautiful nearby beach Sidi Kaouki
- Local guide ( not necessary)
- Camel or horse ride at the beach

DAY IN WATERFALLS OF OUZOUD

FROM

WATERFALLS & MACAQUES

Ouzoud falls is the collective name for several waterfalls that empty into the El-Abid River's. And the term 'Ouzoud' means "the act of grinding grain" in Berber. This seems to be confirmed by the frequent mills in the region. In the vicinity, green valleys, mills, orchards and a superb circuit of the gorges of the El-Abid River are found. Many local and national associations lead projects to protect and preserve the site.

what's included

- ✓ Comfortable transportation
- ✓ English speaking driver
- ✓ English speaking local guide
- ✓ Lunch in a nice terrace
